Dear colleagues,

It is my pleasure to welcome you to Vienna for the 13th Congress of the ECSVD.
We look forward to an exciting and stimulating scientific programme and hope that you will join us.

The venue will be the historic Billroth Haus of the Viennese Medical Society, where Billroth, Wertheim, Freud and many others gave their landmark lectures.
Vienna is the city of music, the home of the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra and of several museums of fine art.
September is a very pleasant time for a visit of this imperial city.
